

Activity suggestions, color sheets, fun worksheets

BLIND WALK:

Have the children hold on to one another's waists and walk around a designated area following the teacher on a BLIND WALK. To make the BLIND WALK a little more fun, the teacher might skip, jump, run, or hop and tell children if they let go of the person's waist in front of them, they must drop out and watch the fun as it continues and can be a helper in seeing who else lets go of someone's waist!

BLIND ART:

Have the children draw one BIG closed eye on the top of a sheet of paper paper and with one BIG opened eye underneath. Between the two eyes, have the children write, "I WAS BLIND BUT NOW I CAN SEE" and add our Bible verse today.

BLIND DRAWING:

Blindfold the children and have them draw a picture of your/their choosing. It will be fun for the children to see what they drew while blindfolded. If a chalkboard is not available, this could also be done individually on a sheet of paper. (Some suggestions might include draw a heart, a cross, a house or a church.)

BLIND BAG:

Let each child enjoy a "touch and feel bag" of goodies. With eyes closed, they can feel inside the bag and try to identify each item.

FINGER PAINTING FROLIC:

Give each child a small amount of brown paint (to represent the mud on the blind man's eyes) on a piece of paper and let them finger paint a picture of their choice, or a cross (for Jesus) or a heart (for God's love).

BLIND OBSTACLE COURSE:

Set up an obstacle course that they have to accomplish blindfolded. This is great when a sibling can assist, telling them right, left, step up, duck, ect.

MAKE A MUD PIE

HAHA! Yes it's messy...
